However, participants must recognize that there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to participate in any outdoor recreational activity or program.

Why Not Now? will not be responsible for any accidents or injuries which may be incurred, and participants are urged to review their own health insurance policy for coverage. Additionally, each participant is solely responsible for determining if he/she is physically fit and/or properly skilled for any activity. It is always advisable, especially if the participant is pregnant, disabled in any way or recently suffered from an illness, injury or impairment, to consult a physician before undertaking any physical activity.

Understandably, not all hazards and dangers can be foreseen. Participants must understand that depending upon the activity, certain risks, dangers and injuries due to acts of God, inclement weather, slipping, falling, inadequate or defective equipment, failure in supervision or instruction, premises defects, horseplay, carelessness, lack of skill or technique, and all other circumstances inherent to outdoor recreational activities/programs exist. Outdoor activities at Why Not Now? may bring participants into contact with water, wildlife, plants and weeds and the risks inherent therewith.
